5th NATIONAL CONGRESS of Telemedicine and Electronic Health

INTERNATIONAL TELEMEDICINE EXHIBITION

ROME
14-15-16 April 2015
“Roma Eventi - Piazza di Spagna” Congress Centre

REQUESTED PATRONAGE
Dear All,

National Congress of SIT in this year will treat several themes of strategic importance for advanced Telemedicine systems development in our Country.

Among those themes there are:

- International collaboration for Research & Development systems
- Telemedicine to support international Cooperation Projects
- Technological innovation, clinical and scientific issues in projecting and using Mobile Health and Medical App
- System Medicine and e-Health: research development in Biomedical field
- Building of Telemedicine systems within political strategies and regulatory issues in EU
- Portability of Telemedicine results to patients nowadays
- Evolution or Revolution in Surgery: Robotic and Telematic Surgery
- Technological innovation: from Hybrid Operative Rooms to Augmented Reality.

There will be one session entirely dedicated to Data Privacy, Computer Security, Bioethics and Telemedicine, specially organized for professional training of Lawyers and with active collaboration of Bologna CIRSFID, National Forensic Association and Lawyers Professional Association of Rome. We think a sustainable, balanced and people-wellness oriented development of Telemedicine and Electronic Health cannot avoid these issues to protect human dignity and fundamental personal liberties.

Moreover, special meetings are planned:

- Partnership meetings on Telemedicine R&D organized by SIT
- Brainstorming together other Italian medical-scientific Societies
- Joint Study Group SIT-ACOI (Italian Hospital Surgeons Association) on Technological Innovations in Surgery
- Presentation of special and highly innovative projects on Telemedicine.
Long time will be left to Presentations of SIT Members. That means to give the right position to contributions of many physicians, researchers, professionals and technologists who are collaborating to study innovative but effective and efficient therapeutic and care solutions in Telemedicine. Visibility, exchange of views and opinions will be added value coming from SIT Congress to everybody who wants to develop technological innovation projects in Healthcare with best scientific approach. To whom will request, especially if younger colleagues, an occasion will be reserved to have a direct discussion and interaction with top experts in Telemedicine field and/or professionals on fundraising for research projects. SIT will evaluate also if to patronage dedicated projects and/or create further in depth analysis of current projects or launch innovative projects also beyond the Congress.

I am grateful to Civil, Religious and Military Authorities who honour us with their presence, to eminent Lecturers and Moderators who accepted our invitation, to precious guests, experts and international famous scientists, to our CEO Giancarmine Russo who thought out, wanted and organized this extraordinary event, to Scientific Committee and to our organizational partner PLS Educational SpA from Firenze, for the excellent work they have done as well all sponsor Companies which have believed and supported our project.

I address my utmost praise and personal gratefulness to those people.

My wish of great work and Congress to all attendants.

Scientific Rational

Using advanced and highly sophisticated technologies, present Medicine is more and more complex and it needs governance instruments which are based on interdisciplinarity, that is harmonious fusion of competences from different involved professional fields. Moreover, most innovative parts of Medicine, like Telemedicine, are needed to be strongly oriented to medical and surgical clinic in order to guarantee their coherent development according to real health changing needs of Patients.

Scientific Program of 5th National Congress of Italian Society of Telemedicine (SIT) is based on these essential requirements and it represents a significant evolution for Italian medical-scientific community especially in the specific area of Telemedicine and Electronic Healthcare, which will have increasingly to focus themselves to Citizens and sick Citizens.

During recent years, SIT National Congress made itself respected as main meeting and studying occasion on topical issues from different professional subjects with steady orientation to Citizens and Patients needs. On this base and through its Congress, SIT has created and intensified scientific as well organizational partnerships together Institutions, researchers, Companies and Citizens.

In the present year SIT aims to involve Italian entities which are developing Telematic Medicine and Surgery with demonstrated scientific effectiveness, creating for them a special occasion to meet eminent researchers and international famous scientists.

Congress will be focused on “People oriented e-Health”. The aim is to centered attention to best Italian Telemedicine projects which are deserving for their scientific accuracy and at the same for capability to get close individual complexity going beyond barriers of specialist subjects.

SIT are proposing to supply innovative but also prompt usable knowledge key-points in order to facilitate scientific partnerships with most relevant Institutions, Societies and Organizations working on e-Health.

Nowadays, most advanced clinical research has to explore deeper mankind, overtaking both dogmatic theoretical schemes and attempts to officially recognize (or perhaps to conform) diversities and individualities of each person. This is the real challenge of future, which young scientists summarized in the expression “The power of One”, specifically derived from study of complexity of n=1 which searches solution to problems of one single sick person with his/her own unrepeatable uniqueness.

Horizons of Medicine are next to be extended well beyond relatively recent scientific revolution of Genomics and post-Genomics. SIT considers humankind oriented research must to be of excellence or try to reach it, but at the same time to make useful products for Patients. If well managed, just Telemedicine will be the keystone to enable and facilitate quick use of best results from innovative research.
